Coming Event

January 2026

Ashland Shakespeare Festival

May 6 – May 9, 2026

This year's Shakespeare Festival outing in picturesque Ashland, Oregon, features 3 plays, 2 catered meals, guest speakers, wine-tasting and other great fellowship opportunities!

Once again, we will be home-based at the Holiday Inn Express & Suites, 565 Clover Lane, Ashland (541.201.0202). We have a block of rooms set aside for you under YMCA Retiree Alumni. The rooms are $139 per night, plus tax, and include use of the conference room for our opening social, as well as a place to gather throughout our stay. Amenities include complimentary self-serve breakfast, indoor pool and fitness center, wireless internet, and refrigerators and microwaves in every room. You may cancel without penalty up to 24 hours prior.

WELCOME SOCIAL

(Wednesday, May 6, 5 pm, meal and speaker/speakers to follow at 6 pm, Holiday Inn Express & Suites, conference room)

COME FROM AWAY

(Thursday, May 7, 1:30 pm, Angus Bowmer Theatre)

Book, Music and Lyrics by Irene Sankof and David Hein, a true story of the people of remote Gander, Newfoundland, who opened their hearts and homes to 7,000 airline passengers stranded by the tragic events of September 11, 2001.

A MIDSUMMER'S NIGHT DREAM

(Thursday, May 7, 8 pm, Angus Bowmer Theatre)

A timeless romantic comedy by William Shakespeare.

A RAISIN IN THE SUN

(Friday, May 8, 1:30 pm, Angus Bowmer Theatre)

A deeply moving and classic American theatre play by Lorraine Hansberry.

The cost of this year's event is $215 per person which includes all 3 plays and catered meals on Wednesday and Friday night. Lodging is separate as referenced above. Prefaces are optional at $10 per person. These typically run about 30 minutes and can be quite enlightening. If interested, indicate on your registration form and I will be happy to arrange. For more information on the plays and prefaces, as well as general theatre questions, visit www.osfashland.org. Registration ends April 1, 2026, or until all tickets have been sold. If you have any questions, call Cathy Howard, event coordinator, at 541.601.2499 or gmacassie@aol.com.

Happy New Year! As you peruse this newsletter, hopefully you will find activities that attract you to join our members - and your friends - in one or more of the variety of scheduled activities in 2026. And if there is something missing, just plan an event, let us know, and we will inform the membership and “BOOM” there is another friendly gathering of Allen-Stone members! We are always trying to involve more “Y” people, so if you know a “Y” employee, current or retired, bring them along to one of our activities!

Seabeck 2026 is scheduled for Sept 21 - Sept 23. Hopefully after the smaller turnout in 2025 (5 had to cancel due to illnesses) we will have a larger group, with an optional outing planned to Bremerton to tour a battleship, morning hikes and, very importantly, the election of board members. If you are interested in being involved via the board or an elected position, please let me know so we can discuss further! Everyone's involvement is important and appreciated.

Good health and happiness to all.

The International Service Corps (ISC), a program initiative of YMCA Alumni, provides short-term opportunities for YMCA Alumni members to use their expertise and critical skills to benefit YMCAs in foreign countries. Types of services may include teaching English language skills, coaching basketball, swimming, or other sports, helping to develop staff and volunteer leadership skills, facilitating collaboration, and long-term planning, among other activities. Current opportunities to serve include Ys in the Bahamas, Dominican Republic, Macedonia, Uruguay, and Mexico. For information contact Bob Martin, Chairperson, at aumartin5@yahoo.com

HOLIDAY ZOOM

Fifteen of us gathered on a ZOOM call on Dec. 6 to usher in the holidays: Craig Frerichs, Jim and Jan Leigh (hosts), Caroline Brooks, Gary Huff, Dave and Joyce Mercer, Mike Robinson, Jill Hallin, Jane Rosi, Ruth Heathman, Christy Collins, Ralph and Barbara Drake, and Bea Halk. We gathered folks from Washington state, Oregon, Nevada, California, and Washington DC. Our theme was "There's no place like Gnome (Home) for the Holidays" and we shared favorite Christmas memories and plans for this year. We played a game naming songs with the word "home" in the title and we toasted to this year and the year to come.

DON ANDERSON HONORED reported in the Connection NEW NU'UANU Y GYM NAMED FOR HIM

Allen-Stone Chapter's Don Anderson, retired CEO of the Honolulu YMCA, was honored Dec. 11 with the announcement that the planned $40 million rebuild of the Nu'uaniu YMCA will feature the Don Anderson Gymnasium.

Don, who established a long-lasting YMCA partnership with the Honolulu Rotary Club more than 20 years ago to build homes, schools, health clinics, and more throughout the Pacific, became a close friend of Nan Shin, founder and owner of Nan Inc. Construction.

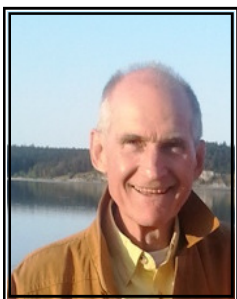

The pair worked side by side on nearly countless volunteer building projects. Nan Inc.'s $1 million gift to advance the Nu'uaniu campaign in December included the request that the new gym be named after Don.

The Nu'uaniu YMCA, the flagship branch of the Y, was established in 1918 in the heart of the city. The current campus buildings date to the early 1960s. The rebuilt facilities will include two affordable housing towers, a new gymnasium for its myriad wellness and healthcare programs, senior services, and pre-school. Construction is expected to begin in 2027 and be completed in 2029.

Don and his wife, Susan, live in Honolulu, where he continues to organize new projects, having recently returned from one in the Philippines.

NATIONAL SERVICE PROJECT UPDATE

Short update on National Service Project. By Gary Huff

A wonderful community celebration of the completion of 4 new, beautiful tiny homes was held September 21 at the YMCA of the Seven Council Fires in Dupree South Dakota. Hundreds attended to say thank you and well done to all involved. All 4 homes are now occupied with single mother families. All managed by the local Y.

The total raised for the National Service Project is now $1,036,000. A new $20,000 gift was recently received. At present, $178,000 will be available to build the Y program Twig in La Plant, South Dakota.

The design of the Twig is near completion. Preliminary designs show the use of the two 40 x 10 foot containers, side by side, with a good looking facade built in and around them. A ground floor will provide 1,025 sq ft of program space and a second level will house a staff member needed for program leadership. A hard deadline is set for completion in 2026. Request for volunteers will be coming out in the new year.

Christmas gift to Tiny homes project

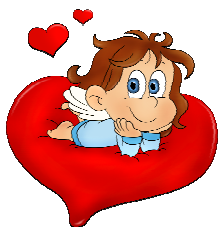

A new exciting gift was announced by the Y of the Seven Council Fires just before Christmas day. An anonymous donor, inspired by a story, on our project, in the New York Times, has donated solar panels for all 4 tiny homes. The donor has also donated the money necessary to fully build a 5th tiny home to fit with the others in the Morningstar community. WOW! Good deeds beget good deeds.

Happy Holidays to all, Gary

Nancy Stifel became a YMCA Director in very small steps.

In 1980's Nancy was living in her hometown of Newington, CT (just a few blocks from where she grew up) with husband Rich Torgan, son Scott and daughter, Leigh. Her husband was given a job transfer to Columbus, Ohio. The family packed up and settled on a home 20 miles east in rural Licking County. With kids off to new schools, Nancy started volunteering at local Y. In short order, she was offered a job running their Saturday Fun Club. Seeking more hours, Nancy then started that YMCA 's first women's classes, starting with the Aerobics craze. (This Y still had a 2nd floor full of male residents)

She was then given the opportunity to open a new Nautilus Facility Camp; then build out a Women's Fitness facility! The Licking Y had a 6 acre campus with 2 outdoor pools. They also owned Camp Nelson Dodd, a long-shuttered 12-acre resident camp. Visiting the closed Camp with her Indian Guides, they found eight buildings in good shape. A plan was created to move 5 cabins down to the Newark Y and start a Day Camp. Indian Guides dads included executives at Owens-Corning, Dow Chemical and State Farm which had headquarters. So flatbed trucks were hired, and a crane, to lift the cabins and transport them. More adventures followed, for years! Ask me more when we meet!

Happy Valentines Day

Thinking about Seabeck 2026: Mark your 2026 calendar now for the dates of Sept. 21-23.

From Chuck: Seabeck Pines

As we all know, the Pines building opened to rave reviews and a staggering amount of bookings. The main complaint? No one liked the mattresses I chose. In my defense, I didn't try them out since it was an online purchase. This month, I finally felt like we could afford to upgrade those mattresses. I didn't want our world-class building marred by anything. We also upgraded the bedspreads. We are committed to maintaining and upgrading this building as needed.

Update on Marty Fink. My professional YMCA career spanned from 1978 to 2009. The last full-time position I held was CEO and; Executive Director at the Silver Bay YMCA (A conference and family retreat center in the Adirondacks).

I stay connected to the YMCA movement by teaching "Spinning" classes at my local YMCA of Douglas County in Roseburg, Oregon and paying attention to my wife Marisa Fink, who is the Executive Director of the Oregon Alliance of YMCAs. Since my early retirement in 2009, I now spend much of my time designing and leading group bike tours. I have led over 40 bike tours in 12 different countries. I use the non-profit organization People Cycling to post the tours that I offer. If you want to know more, you can contact me at your convenience.

Craig Frerichs has been in Providence Hospital since Tuesday December 16th....has some continuing balance issues and may go to a nursing home or assisted living instead of living on his own. His sister and brother-in-law are in the area and helping with the medical issues. He said he would really enjoy TEXTS from people - gave me permission to pass on his number; it is 503-449-7089. (Update: Craig is now back at home)

Personal from Gary and Lony Huff: Lony gave Gary a week at a Pismo Beach California, Inn at the Cove, for his 80th birthday. Determined to do the week without a car, Gary walked 30 miles, covering all the walkable beaches; Shell Beach, Avila Beach and Pismo Beach. During his walks he saw Whales, groves of Monarch Butterflies and thousands of Pelicans.

Gary lost his oldest brother Larry, who lived in Missoula Montana. At 82 he could not defeat a severe case of Parkinson's disease. He died in a memory care unit. Gary talked to him and sang to him near the end.

A Rosi family trip to Italy to see sights and meet family members was in October. My son, his daughter, a nephew and two nieces and my self boarded Iceland Air and flew to Milan, Italy to start our journey. A highlight from there was a visit to the Lakes area in the mountains to Como then Lugano in Switzerland. We took a boat trip on Como to a lovely restaurant for lunch. Then it was to Florence, Pisa and Venice. It was on to the Tuscany region where we stayed in a Villa for a week to visit the home of Rosi relatives in the walled city of Lucca. My nephew and David were able to learn the facts of these relatives descended from the family patriarch Guido Rosi, grandfather of both. We had several meals including a catered dinner in our villa where 20 of us gathered at the large table.. It was on to Rome to see a few places for those who had not been there and bid farewell to three members who had to return home. Three of us drove back to Tuscany and spent another week staying in hill top towns and a last visit with relatives. My nephew planned the trip and did all the driving.

Dave and Joyce Mercer are reporting that their year has been full still enjoying living at Touchmark retirement home. Lots to do and good friends. No longer RVing, both of them are doing great having taken five cruises this past year. Will be slowing down and decided no more overseas flights.

Jim and Jan Leigh have given up the RVing opting to utilize the cabin approach for some of their travel accommodations. They remain quite active in neighborhood gatherings at their clubhouse. They continue activity with Bible studies, book club, card games, musical programs, bingo and TGIF Fridays with potluck dinners.

Portland YMCA Camp Meehan Reunion September 2025

Fred and Sally Stickney headed up a one day reunion of 52 former Camp Meehan staff and campers from Washington, Oregon and California at YMCA Camp Collins in Troutdale, Oregon on September 27, 2025.

When Fred was the Director of the John R. Leach branch of the Portland YMCA, he was tasked with the reopening of Camp Meehan in 1968. It had been closed from 1962, after damage by the Columbus Day storm, which battered Washington state. In 1969 Fred started up new summer camping programs at Meehan, while rebuilding the infrastructure of the camp. Many of the volunteers working on the refurbished buildings, were campers or staff from earlier years and included Bob Smeenk, who was on the Portland YMCA staff.

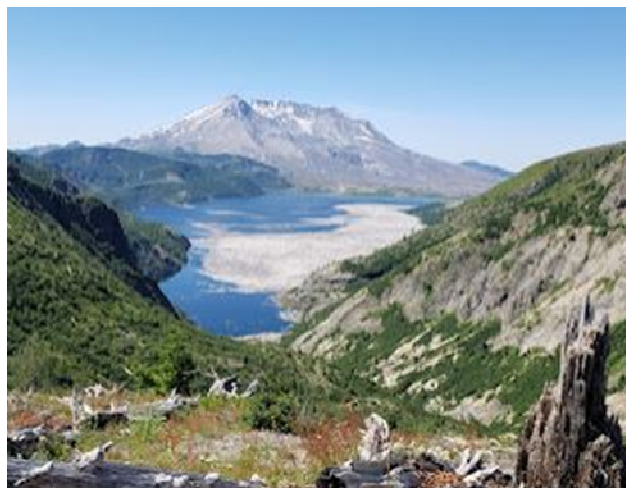

The September reunion included the participants from 1968 to 1979, before the Mt. St. Helens eruption destroyed the camp completely in May of 1980. The reunion was a day of sharing all the wonderful parts of Camp Meehan, reminiscing, stories, pictures, singing camp songs and remembering camp individuals we have lost. Camp Meehan had a long history as it began in the 1930's and Scotty Washburn, an Allen-Stone member, shared stories of his first camp experience there. In the late 90's Fred and Scotty were able to bring a group of former campers of Scotty's era together in Salem who then donated memorabilia of their camping time to the Cowlitz Museum in Longview Washington. The Longview YMCA camp which was located next our camp, can relate to what Camp Meehan lost on the day Mt. St. Helens came alive.

DID YOU KNOW!

Secours Spéciaux HISTORY OF THE FUND

The Secours Spéciaux Fund was established in the 1950s in response to the closure of YMCAs in Eastern Europe under communist regimes, which left many dedicated staff and volunteers in crisis. The initiative began with Mrs. Anna Limbert, whose personal commitment to support affected YMCA members inspired broader organizational involvement.

Over the decades, the Fund has been sustained by the generosity of YMCA retirees and supporters worldwide. In 1997, it was officially prioritized by the World Fellowship of YMCA Retirees (WFYR), with South Asia leading the first organized campaign. During the COVID-19 pandemic, the Fund responded swiftly to the urgent needs of the YMCA community. Financial assistance was extended to nearly 100 retirees facing health, economic, and social challenges as a result of the crisis—offering comfort and stability during an extraordinarily difficult time. Today, the S e Fund continues to provide vital support to retired YMCA staff and volunteers in countries across Africa, Asia, and Latin America—honoring their service with dignity, solidarity and hope.

Support the Fund

For over 70 years, the Secours Spéciaux Fund has provided vital financial assistance to YMCA staff and retirees facing crisis, displacement, or unsecured retirement. This lifeline exists because of generous donors like you. Your support ensures that no one who has dedicated their life to the YMCA is left alone in times of hardship. Every gift—large or small—makes a real difference in providing dignity, hope, and emergency relief.
